

Capital Adequacy Guideline and Implementation Framework for institutions wishing to adopt a standardized approach for calculating operational risk capital charges

Credit unions not members of a federation, trust companies and savings companies

Notice is hereby given by the Autorité des marchés financiers (the "AMF"), that the draft Capital Adequacy Guideline is published for consultation. This guideline is intended for credit unions not members of a federation, trust companies and savings companies, which are governed by the Acts that the AMF administers.

Notice is hereby given by the AMF, that the draft Implementation Framework for credit unions not members of a federation, trust companies and savings companies wishing to adopt a standardized approach for calculating operational risk capital charges, is also published for consultation. This implementation framework is intended to the previously mentioned financial institutions which are governed by the Acts that the AMF administers.

Financial institutions and interested persons in submitting their comments are invited to provide them no later than September 30, 2010. It should be noted that comments submitted will be made public unless otherwise noted.
