Endorsement description

Depending on the applicable option, this endorsement changes the coverage under Section B of the insurance contract for “electronic equipment” that is not “original electronic equipment.”

Option A: Limitation of indemnity

In the event of a covered loss, the indemnity under Section B will be limited to $..... for all damaged “electronic equipment” that is not “original electronic equipment.”

In addition, the indemnity may not be greater than the “actual cash value” of the damaged “electronic equipment”.

This limitation will apply even when a Q.E.F. No. 43 (A to F) entitled “Change to loss payment” is attached to the insurance contract.

Option B: Exclusion from coverage

All “electronic equipment” that is not “original electronic equipment” will be excluded from coverage under Section B.

Definitions

1. Electronic equipment

The expression “electronic equipment” as used in this endorsement means electronic devices:

- that are installed or meant to be installed permanently in or on the specified vehicle; and
- that are used for communicating, reproducing or recording sound or images or both simultaneously, including:
 - compact disc and DVD players;
 - personal navigation devices (GPS);
 - radios, including citizens band, two-way amateur or other radios; and
 - sound systems.

2. Original electronic equipment

The expression “original electronic equipment” as used in this endorsement means the electronic equipment:

- that is installed by the manufacturer or the dealer; and
- that was included in the original purchase price of the specified vehicle.

All other conditions of the insurance contract remain the same.
