

Before completing this form, please read the following carefully:

By “outside activity”, the Autorité des marchés financiers (the “AMF”) means any occupation, function or activity that involves dealing with the public, whether it is remunerated or not remunerated and whether it is pursued on a full-time or part-time basis, for a specified or unspecified period.

Only the following outside activities must be declared to the AMF:

- Activities constituting a provision of finance-related services (see the Provision of Finance-Related Services appendix)
- Activities requiring the segregation of clienteles (see the Segregation of Clienteles Rule appendix)

If this declaration is complete and complies with regulatory requirements, the AMF will not contact you.

You do not need to declare an activity arising from a right to practise granted by the AMF.

If you are a representative governed by the Securities Act, CQLR, c. V-1.1 or Derivatives Act, CQLR, c. I-14.01, the registration file must also be updated in the National Registration Database (“NRD”) by the sponsoring firm.

Rights of access and correction

You may examine the personal information concerning you, obtain a copy of it or request that it be corrected if it is inaccurate, incomplete or equivocal, or if the collection, release or keeping of the information is not authorized under the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information, CQLR, c. A-2.1. If you have any questions on this topic, please visit the AMF website at Information Access | AMF \(lautorite.qc.ca\).

GENERAL UNDERTAKINGS

You are reminded that...

Some outside activities can cause confusion for clients, particularly when they are finance-related. A client may confuse your outside activities with those for which you hold a representative’s certificate. A representative may therefore pursue an outside activity only if, pursuant to the Regulation respecting the pursuit of activities as a representative, CQLR, c. D-9.2, r. 10, the outside activity is unlikely to be confused with the activities of a representative.

I therefore confirm that the outside activity declared is not likely to be confused with my activities as a representative.

Yes No

You are reminded that...

Under the Regulation respecting the pursuit of activities as a representative, a representative may pursue an outside activity only if he has reported the outside activity in writing to the firm or independent partnership on whose behalf he or she acts.

I therefore confirm that I have reported the outside activity in writing to the firm or independent partnership on behalf of which I am acting as a representative, if applicable.

Yes No

OUTSIDE ACTIVITY CONSTITUTING A PROVISION OF FINANCE-RELATED SERVICES

Does the outside activity declared constitute a provision of finance-related services? Yes No

For further details, see the Provision of Finance-Related Services appendix.

- If you answered “yes”, please confirm the following undertaking:

You are reminded that...

Under the Regulation respecting the pursuit of activities as a representative, representatives who pursue an outside activity may not use privileged or confidential information to which they have access in the course of the outside activity, unless the person concerned has consented in writing to such use.

I therefore confirm that I do not use in my activities as a representative privileged or confidential information obtained in the course of my outside activity unless the person concerned has consented in writing to such use. Yes No

OUTSIDE ACTIVITY REQUIRING THE SEGREGATION OF CLIENTELES

Does the outside activity declared require the segregation of clienteles? Yes No

For further details, see the Segregation of Clienteles Rule appendix.

- If you answered “yes”, please confirm the following undertaking:

You are reminded that...

Under the Regulation respecting the pursuit of activities as a representative, a representative may not offer financial products or services to any natural person with whom the representative has a relationship arising from an outside activity that requires the segregation of clienteles or to any person whom the representative knows is a relative of the natural person, meaning the natural person’s spouse or child, the spouse’s child, the natural person’s mother, father, brother or sister, the spouse of the natural person’s father or mother, the father or mother of the natural person’s spouse or the spouse of the natural person’s child.

I confirm that I do not offer financial products or services to any natural person with whom I have a relationship arising from an outside activity or to any persons I know is a relative of the natural person. Yes No

SECTION 3 – REQUIRED SUPPORTING DOCUMENT

Missing or incomplete documents will delay processing of your application.

The Attestation of Firm or Independent Partnership appendix is not required for independent representatives.

Any outside activity constituting a provision of finance-related services must be declared to the AMF. You must also declare such activities when the services are offered through a firm of which you are a shareholder, partner, director or officer.

No declaration is required if the outside activity arises from a right to practise granted by the AMF.

Outside activities constituting a provision of finance-related services may also require the segregation of clienteles.

For further details, visit our Activities to be declared \(Outside activities\) web page.

CLARIFICATIONS

The AMF considers the following to be outside activities constituting a provision of finance-related services:

- Providing loan or deposit or other banking products and services
- Lending money or accepting deposits of money
- Facilitating or administering mortgages, including acting as a mortgage agent or administrator
- Carrying on a money service business, including exchanging one type of currency for another, transferring money from one person to another, or issuing or redeeming money orders, traveller's cheques or anything similar
- Providing tax services, including preparing tax returns or providing tax advice
- Providing accounting or bookkeeping services
- Providing corporate finance services, including services provided in the capacity of a comptroller, treasurer and chief financial officer
- Advising persons on credit/debt restructuring
- Providing advice on mergers and acquisition
- Providing oversight or independent review or expert opinion on the management of an entity's financial assets

Any outside activity requiring the segregation of clienteles must be declared to the AMF. You must also declare such activities when the services are offered through a firm of which you are a shareholder, partner, director or officer.

For further details, visit our Activities to be declared \(Outside activities\) web page.

SEGREGATION OF CLIENTELES RULE

If you pursue any of the activities listed below, you are prohibited from soliciting and acting as a certified representative for the clients for whom you are pursuing the outside activity (“segregation of clienteles”). Indeed, under the Regulation respecting the pursuit of activities as a representative, a representative may not offer financial products and services to any natural person with whom the representative has a relationship arising from certain outside activities.

This rule also applies in respect of any natural person whom the representative knows is a relative of the person, meaning the natural person’s spouse or child, the spouse’s child, the natural person’s mother, father, brother or sister, the spouse of the natural person’s father or mother, the father or mother of the natural person’s spouse or the spouse of the natural person’s child.
